

I hope you will not weaken the rules governing ownership of media to allow one company to own more media in a marketing area. I believe the consolidation of media under fewer owners, as has happened in the last few years, is a mistake and will dilute the ability of each of us to debate and learn about issues important to our country's survival.